42nd Annual Las Vegas Seminars

General Information
The course comprises 16.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. The ACCME has determined that this activity is acceptable for a maximum of 16.0 MOC Part 2 credits and is approved for Maintenance of Certification (MOC) Part 2 credit in Pediatrics. It is also approved for 12.0 credit hours of the MOC Part 1 - Self-Assessment Component. This activity is acceptable for a maximum of 16.00 Prescribed credit(s) by the American Osteopathic Association. Medical Professionals should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Program Objectives
• Address various GI problems in children in a new light.
• Review current information on COVID-19 in all age groups and settings.
• Understand the key principles of motivational interviewing and interventions to assist patients in adhering to healthy behaviors.
• Understand the complications of childhood obesity and the impact of obesity on overall health.
• Understand which cutaneous signs suggest a serious health disorder affecting this issue.
• Address various infectious disease issues.
• Understand the importance of the gut microbiome in health and disease.
• Recognize and manage a variety of skin issues in children.
• Understand the impact of comorbid conditions on the management of patients with old friends, make new friends, and return home refreshed with new knowledge and growth.
• Address various GI problems in children in a new light.

Target Audience
The course is directed toward urban and rural, general, and sub-specialty, pediatricians, as well as non-pediatric physicians, nurses, nurse practitioners and other allied health professionals.

Registration Online at www.aap-ca.org

Cancellation and Refund Policy
Cancellations by October 30, 2021 will be subject to a $50 service charge. No refunds after November 7, 2021. All registrants will be serviced by the AAP’s meeting call (626) 796-1632, or e-mail meetings@aap-ca.org. Meeting call electronic flash drive syllabus and folder with pocket guide requires a charge of $40. For information prior to the meeting call, a syllabus is also available for an additional charge of $50. For information prior to the meeting call, a syllabus is also available for an additional charge of $50.

Disclosure of Financial Relationships
The AAP Policy on Disclosure of Financial Relationships and Resolution of Conflicts of Interest is an online resource located at the registration desk for review. Two levels of financial relationships are identified. This program will address the physicians’ education committee was for many years ago due to COVID-19, after a long and challenging year away due to COVID-19, after a long and challenging year, we look forward to once again providing this opportunity for our valued attendees.

Welcome Back!
We welcome back our returning attendees. This seminar is directed toward urban and rural, general, and sub-specialty, pediatricians, as well as non-pediatric physicians, nurses, nurse practitioners and other allied health professionals.

Las Vegas Seminars
NOVEMBER 18-21, 2021
Casars Palace| Las Vegas | Nevada

Reimbursement
This program is accepted for 15.0 NAPNAP CEU credits and 12.0 contact hours of MOC Part 2 credits. This activity is approved for Maintenance of Certification (MOC) Part 2 - Self-Assessment Component. It is also approved for 12.0 credit hours of the MOC Part 1 - Self-Assessment Component. This activity is acceptable for a maximum of 16.00 Prescribed credit(s) by the American Osteopathic Association. Medical Professionals should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Other Information
There will be no buffet breakfast and coffee service continues throughout the entire seminar. Lunch will be served at noon each day. Lunch vouchers will be given daily. Vouchers are good only at the Caesars Palace Cafetorium. The Caesars Palace Seminars are open to conference attendees as well as the general public. Participants must be present to receive credit. Registration for that luncheon seminar reaches capacity, registration for that luncheon seminar will be closed. Make sure to register at least three days in advance.